

May 18, 2018 06:45 UTC

King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust renews contract with Falck UK

King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and Falck UK have agreed a contract extension which will run until August 2019.

- The renewal allows King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and Falck to continue developing our existing collaboration, says Chief Executive of Falck Ambulance UK, Mark Raisbeck. He continues:

- We look forward to continuing to work hard to ensure we are providing the best service to the patients of Kings.

Falck Ambulance UK has delivered non-emergency patient transport to King's College Hospital since 2014 and operates approximately 140,000 journeys each year.

Kings College Hospital is one of the UK's busiest and largest teaching hospitals treating 1.5 million patients each year.

Across the UK, Falck employs more than 400 (+) frontline ambulance staff trained and qualified to NHS standards, and operates a fleet of 300 (+) specially equipped ambulances, stretcher vehicles and wheelchair accessible cars.

The contract with King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust is one of more than 30 contracts between NHS Trusts and Falck UK.

About Falck

For more than a century, Falck has worked with local and national governments to prevent accidents, diseases and emergency situations, to rescue and assist people in emergencies quickly and competently and to rehabilitate people after illness or injury. This has made Falck an international leader in emergency response and healthcare services.

Falck operates in 30 countries and has approximately 27,000 employees.

.

Contacts

Global Communications

Press Contact

comms@falck.com

+45 70 22 03 07