New managing director of Falck Finland

Katariina Matveinen will assume the position as Managing Director of Falck Finland (9Lives) effective as of January 1, 2018. Katariina Matveinen will replace Markus Ulfsted, who will assume another position within the Falck Group. Katariina Matveinen has been with Falck Finland (9Lives) since 2010.

CEO of Falck Emergency, Jakob Bomholt, says:

- I look forward to having Katariina as part of the Ambulance Leadership Team.

Falck Finland (9Lives) is Finland's largest provider of emergency medical and patient transfer services. Falck Finland (9Lives) operates 80 ambulances and services roughly 2 million people in Finland.

About Falck

For more than a century, Falck has worked with local and national governments to prevent accidents, diseases and emergency situations, to rescue and assist people in emergencies quickly and competently and to rehabilitate people after illness or injury. This has made Falck an international leader in emergency response and healthcare services.

Falck operates in 30 countries and has approximately 27,000 employees.
